

Central Idea

This statement ties the learning together to create connections and provide a context across pupils' knowledge.

Humans have a responsibility for their own and others' well being.

Words in blue do not link to the central idea.

Lines of Inquiry

Humans have a responsibility for their own and others' well being.

1. What causes poverty (Causation)
2. Different types of poverty (Connection)
3. People who take responsibility ensuring the wellbeing of others (Responsibility).

Maths

Number: Place Value

PSPE

RSE: Friendship

PSHE: Safety

PE: Multi-Skills - Running, jumping, throwing and catching in isolation and in combination

Science

Plants:

- Identify the parts of a plant.
- Investigating water transportation.
- Life-cycle of a plant.

English

Text: 'The Great Foodbank Heist' by Onjali Q. Raúf

Writing Outcomes:
Character Description
Setting Description

YEAR 3 MODULE 1

Computing

Online Safety

- Knows not to share passwords.
- Recognise that a website is not suitable for children.

Social Studies

History: Richard Watts
Geography: Sketch Maps
RE: Christianity, The Bible

The Arts

DT - Food and Nutrition
Understand food preparation.

Visit

- Rochester - The Six Poor Travellers House and the Cathedral
- Charity shops

Websites

- Medway Foodbank
- Britannica Kids: Poverty.

Apps

Spelling Shed
TTRS
NumBots
LanguageNut

YEAR 3 MODULE 1

Home Learning Opportunities

In the Car

- Discuss ways to support others in need
- Sing times table songs
- Practise spellings

Be Supportive

- Empathy, not fear if observing homelessness
- Places that might help people, soup kitchens
- Community spaces to promote wellbeing

IT

- Research poverty around the world
- Create a poster to suggest ways others could help those in need

Look Out For

- Places to donate to people in need
- Signs that someone needs help

Communicate

- Discuss ways of taking care of our own wellbeing
- Share some work with others to teach them something new

Get Creative

- Create a wants vs. needs sorting game or a budgetting challenge game
- Design and make kindness cards for others including wider members of the community
- Toy donation